Nick Vetsch

Director of Business Development

Nick has been working in the carsharing industry for over 10 years. During his time as General Manager of car2go Austin, he managed a fleet of 400+ carshare vehicles and worked with property owners/developers to incorporate carsharing on-site at more than 150 properties. He currently is Director of Business Development at Quantum Mobility, an Austin-based startup providing carsharing-as-an-amenity to multifamily properties.
